

Poisonous Plants to Pets

Spring has sprung! Did you know, a large portion of household and garden plants are toxic to pets? Here's a list to keep on hand at home. To view photographs of a much more extensive list of toxic and harmful plants known to cause systemic effects and/or varying degrees of gastrointestinal upset, visit www.aspca.org.

- Aloe
- Amaryllis
- Autumn Crocus
- Azalea
- Baby's Breath
- Castor Bean
- Chrysanthemum
- Clematis
- Cyclamen
- Daffodil
- Dumb Cane
- Gladiolas
- Holly
- Hyacinth
- Hydrangea
- Iris
- Ivy
- Kalanchoe
- Lilies (including Easter Lilies)
- Mistletoe
- Narcissus
- Oleander
- Poinsettia
- Pothos
- Rhododendron
- Sago Palm
- Schefflera
- Tulip
- Yew
- Yucca

Should your pet experience an emergency, contact your primary care veterinarian or AERA's Animal Emergency & Referral Associates in Fairfield, NJ. We are open 24/7, 365 days a year for emergency care.

1237 Bloomfield Avenue | Fairfield, NJ 07004
(973) 788-0500 | animalerc.com